Latest updates from Cal Fire and Butte County. Plumas County Sheriff isn't currently showing any information on the fire.

The screenshot shows two tweets from the verified account 'CAL FIRE Butte Unit/Butte County Fire Department'. The first tweet, posted 27 minutes ago, reports that the fire is 1200 acres and burning north of populated areas, with large resource orders in place. The second tweet, posted 1 hour ago, updates that the fire is currently 500 acres and 0% contained. Both tweets show engagement metrics for replies, retweets, and likes.

The screenshot shows an official evacuation warning from the Butte County Sheriff's Office. It is dated 7.14.21 at 9:20 a.m. and concerns the Pulga and East Concow areas. The warning states that the office is issuing an evacuation warning due to a wildfire. It directs the public to a website for a map and provides a phone number for further information.
